The Coffee Shop

Cal's Joke of the Day

Today in Farm History - Soil Conservation Service 1933

Hugh Hammond Bennett, the "father of soil conservation," testified before Congress on March 23, 1934, while a Dust Bowl storm darkened the room. Congress passed the Soil Conservation Act the next year. Today's NRCS conservation payments to farmers (EQIP, CSP) trace directly to that hearing. Source: USDA NRCS historical archive.
